Ideas for You to Do at Home.

Have your children try to put their belongings first and then give a helping hand. It helps to foster independence. Remember to always give praise for even the little things as it encourages and builds great self-esteem.

Skills We Will Be Working On

Pre- Reading and Pre- Math

- Practice reciting our first names
- Practice identifying primary colours
- Practice identifying basic shapes
- Listening to books and pointing at pictures.

Social skills

- Practice and labeling emotions
- Continue to practice turn taking during circle

Motor skills

- Ride on toys using pedals
- Practice using utensils during meal times.

- Practice balancing on one foot

Self- Help

- Tidy up after playing
- Practice to wipe our face with a napkin after eating

How does Learning Happen?

Relationship matter for families too. Families develop trust, confidence, and sense of belonging in programs that value the centrality of the family to the health and well-being of children Pg. 7

Important Dates:

June 5 A.G.M Meeting
June 19 Librarian Visits
June 28 Lets wear Blue

Did You Know That...

During Washroom Routines, Toddlers learn to be independent. They pull up and down their pants, some of them sit on the toilet, use toilet paper and learn proper hand washing skills
