

JANUARY

Gross Motor

- Increased strength and endurance as we pull sleds
- Symmetric movement by making snow angels

Math Skills

- Create and repeat shapes and patterns
- Concept of different sizes
- Sorting objects, pictures and things into groups and/or along a continuum

Motor Skills

- Complete simple and complex puzzles
- Practice using our pincer grasp when engaged in creative experiences

Self Help Skills

- Practice fasteners e.g. zippers, buttons & snaps

Science Skills

- Discover colours and what new colours are made when mixed together
- Identify cause and reaction when liquids mix together

Social Skills

- Play with others who have differing abilities and characteristics
- Work on inviting others to play, while offering play materials and roles
- Conflict Resolution and Social Problem - Solving Skills

Important days

Jan 01 – New Year's Day

Jan 07 – Orthodox Christmas

How Does Learning Happen?

Young children experience their world as an environment of relationships. And these relationships affect virtually every aspect of development. Relationships are the active ingredient in healthy development, especially brain development.

(Think, feel and Act, 2013)